COO Students Learn Through Experience

Allen Jay was fortunate four years ago when it was the first school in the county or in the High Point area to be able to offer a course in Cooperative Office Occupations. This course is designed for seniors who express a desire to go into office employment upon graduation from high school, or who plan to attend college and pursue a degree in business. The COO students attend their regular morning classes and work in area offices in the afternoon. Thus, these students are putting into immediate practice knowledge gained while yet in school. There is a very noticable air about the COO students—that of a maturing person.

Vocational Tests Prove Students Aptitude

Mr. Randall Brooks, B.A.
BOT Co-ordinator

Basic Occupational Training prepares students for work after high school. BOT will place students on the job when they become sixteen years of age. This will be a half-day work-study program by which the student comes to school until 12:30 and then is on the job.

Several Junior and Senior boys take courses in Industrial Arts at Ragsdale. These students are enrolled in such courses as Drafting, Sheet Metal, and Graphic Arts. Through these vocational classes, the boys found their training useful in practical application. They also gained a lasting appreciation of the beauty of a finely constructed article.

Library Is A Place for Quiet Study

With a 6-4 Record.

Craig Brewer and Alan Palmer,
Managers

Eleven Seniors, three outstanding coaches, the will and determination to win made this year's Jaybird team very successful. Despite injuries and defeat, the Jaybird came back strong at the end of the season to win their last two games, to give them a 6-4 season. The American Legion Post 206 honored the Jaybird with a Banquet. The most valuable players were honored. Gary Meredith was chosen as the most valuable back, and Winston Moody was chosen as the most valuable lineman. The highlight of the Banquet was the guest speaker who was Charlie Harvell, Sports Director at WGHP Television. He spoke on "What It Takes to Make A Citizen."

Meredith and Moody were selected as All-Conference again season with Meredith leading the league in scoring with 118 points. The 1969-70 is to be commended for its outstanding record.

Clay Call, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Call, Sr., and Penny Tyndall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Tyndall, were elected Mascots of the Senior Class of 1970.

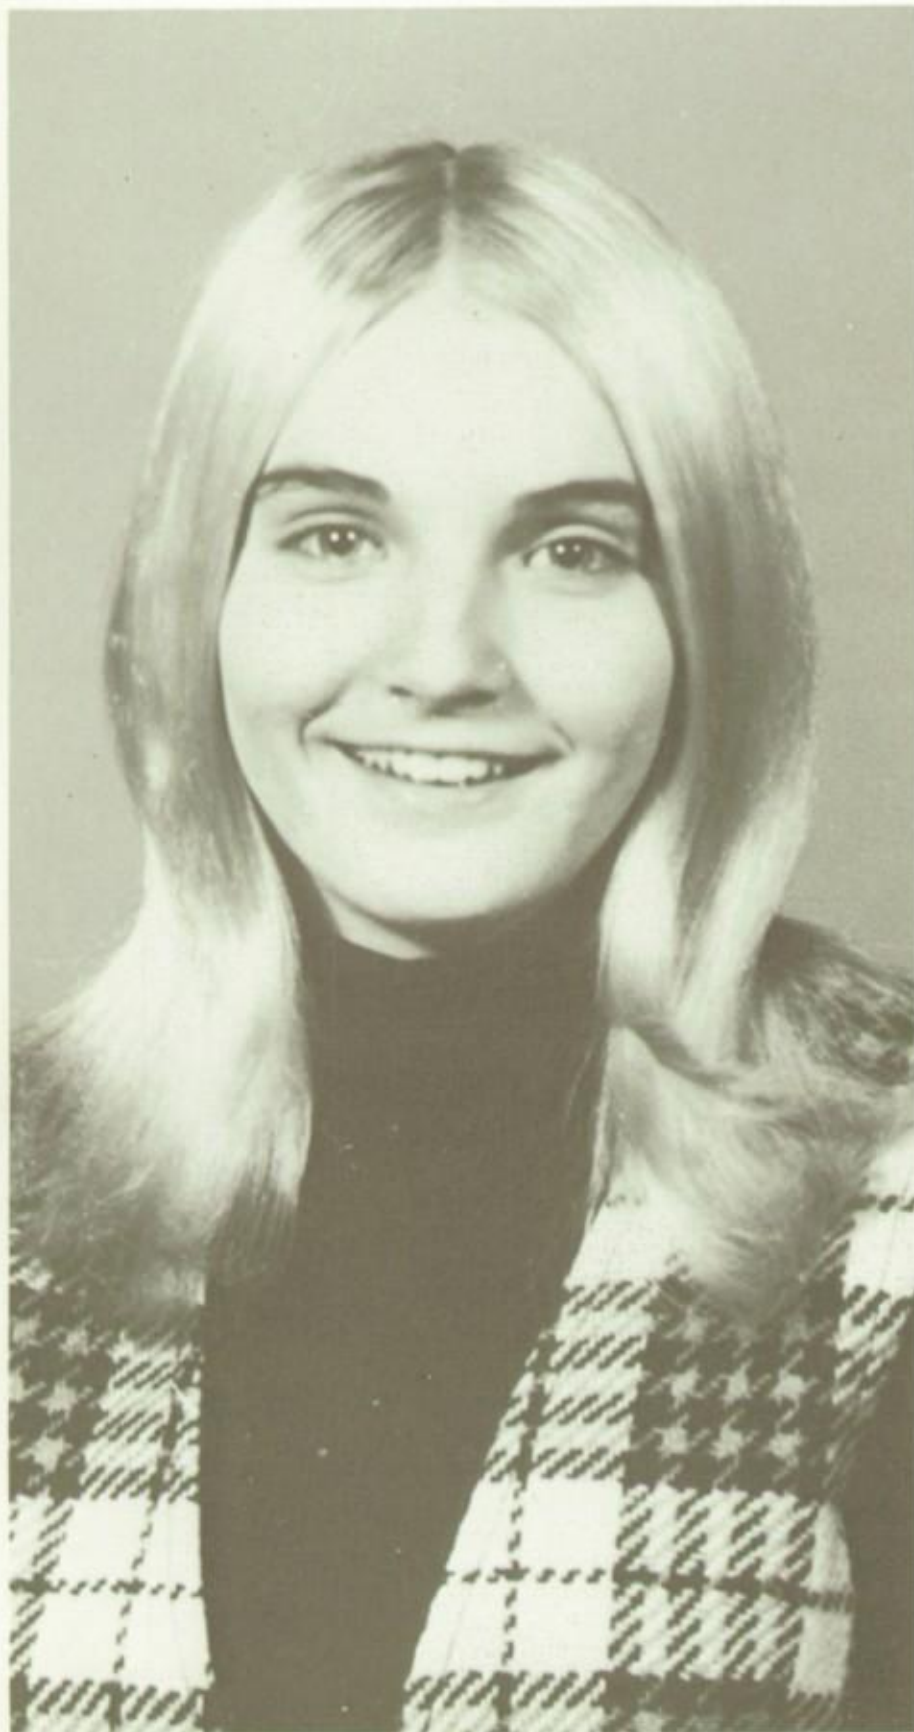

MARILYN McCLAY AND GARY HILL, as editors of the yearbook, have learned to sacrifice most of their precious time. Both are ardent workers but are able to maintain their sense of humor. Marilyn participates in many of the school activities and still maintains her grade average to stay in Beta Club, while Gary enjoys playing football and has an unusual ability for making friends.

JIMMY SHACKELFORD has done an excellent job as photographer for the annual for the past three years. His wit and casual remarks have brightened many classes at Allen Jay.

Seeking the Sought-for Goal

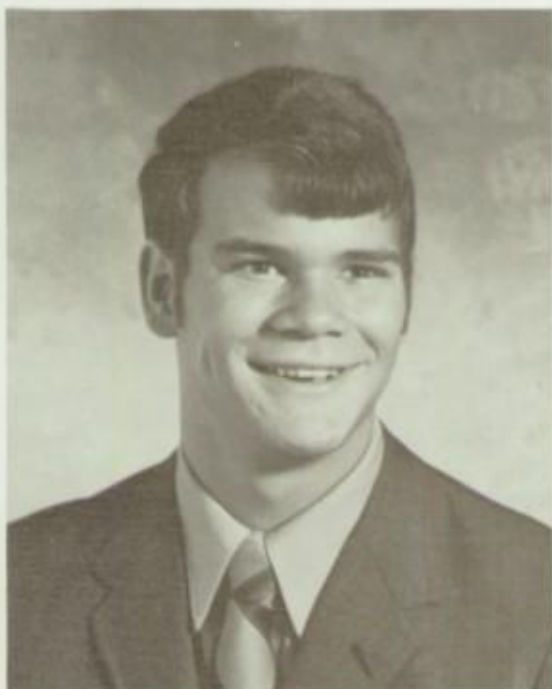

BARBARA COLTRANE is an outstanding student at A.J. because of her many unique qualities. Barbara shows her school spirit by participating in Basketball; Track, Library Club, and she is President of the Senior Class. Service, dependability, school spirit, and the willingness to shoulder more than her share of the hardwork set Barbara apart from the average student.

DEBBIE VUNCANNON was selected as an outstanding student because she is such a well rounded person. She participates in Chorus, Cheerleading, F.B.L.A., and Beta Club. Debbie is a diligent worker in everything, especially as Business Manager of the Aln-Ja-Hi. Debbie proves to be a very patient person.

RALPH MODLIN'S friendly "Hi" and pleasant smile make him a favorite of everyone. He is one of Allen Jay's best centers for the football team. He is to be commended for the many hours he has spent in taking and developing pictures.

SUSAN SPARKS was selected as outstanding student because of her various talents and participation in school activities. Susan is head majorette and enjoys drama. She won Allen Jay's first trophy in N.F.L. for Dramatic Reading. She is Miss Aln-Ja-Hi and also served as Senior attendant in the Homecoming court. She has worked in the attendance office two years.

JOAN GARNER has been a cheerleader for the past two years. She has participated in various club activities, but has found time to be the editor of Allen Jay's newspaper.

JANET KESTLER and GARY MEREDITH have been chosen outstanding seniors because of their contribution to the many school activities. Janet has shown her scholastic ability by being elected a member of Beta Club. She has also participated in NFL and the French Club. Gary Meredith has shown great athletic ability in such sports as: Basketball, Football, and Baseball. Although Gary shows interests in athletics, you can be sure that he will keep up his academic record.

WINSTON MOODY, throughout the years, has shown great ability in such fields as: Football and Baseball. His club activities include: Junior Civitan, Monogram, Hi-Y, and FBLA. Winston is also a former member of the Student Council.

KEITH SMITH possesses outstanding grades and scholastic ability. He holds the position of Treasurer of Beta Club, worked very diligently on the feature section of the Aln-Ja-Hi Annual, and holds positions in many other clubs. He has an exceedingly good personality and is liked by everyone.

LIBBY CARTER and KIM JARRETT

Scholarship is one of Libby's most outstanding characteristics. Libby is President of our newly formed French Club and strives to make it educational as well as entertaining.

Kim is President of the Student Council and is active in every area of school activities. Kim is also known for his scholastic abilities.

He is a responsible, dependable young man.

JEANNE ROSS was chief marshal at A.J. last year. She is also a member of the Beta Club. Jeanne's talent in singing has made her a valuable member of our Glee Club. Her honesty, loyalty, and dependability set her apart from most students.

OLD CARTERTOWN

God created the beauty of the earth,
that inspired a man to build,
a town of old from frontier days;
the legend of old Cartertown.

Old Cartertown sits at the foot of rolling green hills, where a creek, a stream, a spring all meet;
and sleeping meadows lie.

There is a quiet spirit here
that echo's through the fields and woods, that shelter God's creatures, and birds which sing His glory.

There is no price to pay, no bondage of the soul, in this inspirational land of peace;
only a calmness that sweeps
over one's soul.

So may I sing my way through
the rolling hills;
In and out the pasture fields.
God has spread beauty everywhere.

Flowers, birds, rocks, and streams,
All are united in the spring,
and all show the greatness
of his Spirit.

Yes, there is a song to sing;
A story of his Glory.
The winds whisper to me, as if his breath
were so very close to me.

Oh God, hold my hand and lead me
to higher plains, I pray.
For even this earthly beauty is not my promised land, this day.

MILLARD H. BODENHEIMER &
BONNIE BODENHEIMER FRYE.

The above lines in memory of old John Carter, one of the first commissioners of the young city of High Point, were composed in an attempt to reflect his early life. He is credited with helping build the railroad through High Point, and also the Old Plank Road. His picture hangs in the Public Works Office at City Hall.

The old Carter Mill on the city's eastern edge has been rebuilt, a tribute to John Carter's memory.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

—Robert Frost

Dear Steve,

You are the best friend I ever had. I hope you feel the same way. I hope I am in your room next year.
